

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Several Weddings of Interest
This Week.

Supper at Chesapeake Club—A Charming
House-party—Tug Party—Social Items—
The Country Club.

The wedding of Miss Virginia Farragut Newton and Dr. Neil Augustus McCurdy, which will take place next Saturday evening, at Christ Church, will be a brilliant occasion, as a large number of invitations have been issued.

The bride will be attended by a maid of honor, Miss Gussie Newton, and eight bridesmaids—Mrs. George L. Arps, Mrs. Hugh Nelson Page, Mrs. James Iredell Jenkins, Mrs. Fanny Grandy, Mrs. R. K. Cralle, Mrs. J. Sidney Smith, Miss Mary Whaley, and Miss Elsie Chamberlain.

The maid of honor will wear pink panna, and carry sweet peas. The bridesmaids will be gowned alike in white organdies and carry bouquets of sweet peas. The bride will wear mousseline de soie over silk. She will be given away by her father.

The best man will be Dr. Southgate Leigh, and the ushers are to be Mr. James N. Waite, Dr. E. E. Field, Mr. William Old, Mr. Loyall Farragut, Mr. Frederick Arps, Mr. Walter Santos, Mr. George Loyall, and Captain D. C. Burr.

A reception will be given immediately after the ceremony, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Newton, on Freemason street.

JOHNSTON-JORDAN.

The marriage of Miss Mattie W. Johnston and Mr. Robert Echols Jordan will occur on Thursday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. Wickham Taylor, cousin of the bride, on Bute street. It will be a very quiet wedding, only the family and relatives being present.

Another wedding to occur this week is that of Miss Mary Armistead Sutton and Mr. William S. White, which will take place early Tuesday morning, at the residence of the bride's mother, on Granby street. It will be a very quiet affair, only the family being present.

A SUPPER AT CHESAPEAKE CLUB
Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hughes entertained at supper at Chesapeake Club, on Thursday evening, in honor of their guest, Miss Camille, of Philadelphia. There were present on this charming occasion Mr. and Mrs. Hughes, Mrs. George Taylor, Mrs. Bradford, Miss Gertrude Walke, Judge Hancock, Mr. Wilcox, Mr. Decatur Mayo, and Mr. Reid Hobson.

A CHARMING HOUSE PARTY.
Miss Lottie Rodgers entertained at a charming house-party on Thursday evening, at Virginia Beach. After refreshments had been served, the company proceeded to the hotel where dancing was enjoyed until 10:30 o'clock.

The guests included Misses Virginia Pollard, Edna Sharp, Lillian Young, Mary and Fannie Royler, Virginia Downer, Lucy Hardy, Bayne Taylor, Carrie and Annie Voight, Mildred Ken-sette, Louise Jones, Virginia Bull, Carolyn Cohn, Katherine Newbill, Alice Williams, Bonnie Whiting, Mary Duncan, Fannie Nottingham, Belle Heath, Mary Baylor, Lelia Hobson, Gladys McNair, Kittle Smith, Emily Rodgers, N. ## Only 6 More Days in the June Sale of Muslin Underwear!

We do not quote descriptions of the garments, but trust to the reputation of our department to give the necessary assurance of the desirability of style.

The daintiness of workmanship.

The quality of the material and ample fullness of sizes.

At each of the prices quoted below, we present the best value that has ever been offered in Norfolk in this line.

Next month will find the majority of the garments re-marked at higher prices. It is not practical to conduct a business the year round on the very low prices which we are quoting during this sale. There is decided economy in buying now.

Special for Monday 10c Corset Covers 5c. 12 1/2c Corset Covers 6 1/4c.
